

Crash summary for the electoral district of ENFIELD (19.1 km<sup>2</sup>)

Location and severity of crashes (2020 - 2024)

● Property damage only    ● Minor injury    ● Serious injury    ● Fatal

Casualties involved in crashes

Year	Minor injuries	Serious injuries	Fatalities	Total	Social costs
2020	118	8	0	126	$5.8M
2021	126	10	2	138	$13.0M
2022	101	13	1	115	$9.9M
2023	97	14	2	113	$13.3M
2024	105	9	2	116	$12.1M
Total	547	54	7	608	$54.1M

2031 target	7.9	0.5
--------------------	------------	------------

Electoral district boundary data: Electoral Commission South Australia [<https://www.ecsa.sa.gov.au/electoral-districts/state-electoral-boundaries>].

Crash data: South Australian Department for Infrastructure and Transport [<https://data.sa.gov.au/data/dataset/road-crash-data>].

Crash social costs: Bureau of Infrastructure and Transport Research Economics, 2020 $AUD values [<https://www.bitre.gov.au/publications/2022/social-cost-road-crashes>].

South Australian 2031 crash casualty targets: 30% fewer serious injuries and 50% fewer fatalities than 2018-2020 average [https://www.thinkroadsafety.sa.gov.au/road\_safety\_strategy].

Basemap data: OpenStreetMap contributors [<https://www.openstreetmap.org/copyright>] and CARTO [<https://carto.com>].

Visualisation developed by the Centre for Automotive Safety Research (CASR) - Adelaide University [<https://adelaideuni.edu.au/research/centre-for-automotive-safety-research>].